DESCRIPTION: Looking for a destination trailer to place on your ranch for when you want to stay awhile before heading back to the city? This Sandpiper model might just have you coming back each weekend to enjoy all the residential features and convenient options. As you make meals in the kitchen, you can take your dry goods from the large pantry and residential refrigerator, serve the food on the kitchen island, and stare out the "atrium" windows and 60" patio door with tinted glass and vertical blinds at your land. The Serta memory foam king mattress in the rear master bedroom will provide a good night's sleep after working on the ranch, and you can wash your dirty clothes in the washer and dryer if you chose to add those optional appliances. You will love the look of the pendant light box, the airflow from the ceiling fan, and the convenience of dual entry into the trailer. Start living the dream!
